We subscribe to the Statement of Faith of the United Church of Christ. We will devote ourselves to the study, the practice, and the extension of the Christian faith. (Adapted from the Salem Church Covenant, 1629)

Article III – Polity

This Church is a Local Church of the United Church of Christ, with privileges and responsibilities as described in the Constitution and Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.

Article IV - Membership

Sec 1. Church membership is open to any person who acknowledges Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, who is growing and maturing in the Christian faith, and who indicates a genuine desire to exercise the privilege and responsibility of membership. Full members may join this church by one of the following methods: Letter of transfer from another church, reaffirmation of faith, confession of faith and baptism, and confirmation of Christian faith.

Sec 2. Persons who have cause to retain membership in churches in other communities may be accepted as associate members for the duration of their residence in Grinnell. Associate members may vote at meetings of the Congregation, serve on the Governing Board, and exercise all other rights and responsibilities of membership, but are not counted in our annual report to the denomination,

Sec 3. Both full and associate members will normally make a public commitment to the Church through the Reception of New Members liturgy.

Article V - Organization

A. The Congregation

Members of this Church, desiring divine guidance and working to reconcile differences, together make up the Church in its witness and its mission. The government of the Church is vested in its members, gathered as the Congregation. To make the life of the Church effective and visible, the Congregation delegates governance authority to the elected Governing Board and management authority to the Pastor. To ensure wide participation in congregational decision-making and ministry work, the Governing Board appoints committees and task forces and the Pastor appoints staff members, volunteer leaders, and ministry teams.

B. Pastor

Sec 1. The Pastor serves as the spiritual leader of the Church, as its executive director, and as the primary leader of its spiritual, programmatic, and administrative work. The Pastor is a nonvoting member of the Governing Board and all committees and task forces, and the supervisor of all paid staff. In partnership with the Governing Board, the Pastor formulates goals for the Church and ensures compliance with Governing Board policies.

Sec 2. Call of the Pastor.

(a) When a pastoral vacancy occurs, the Governing Board must call a congregational meeting to elect a Pastoral Search Committee of 7 to 9 members. Nominations for the Pastoral Search Committee may be made by the Governing Board or, with the nominee's consent, from the floor.

(b) The Pastor is chosen and called according to the principles set forth in the Manual on the Ministry—United Church of Christ in its latest edition. When the Pastoral Search Committee has selected a candidate and reviewed its decision with the Governing Board, the selected candidate will be invited to preach in the Church and meet its members. There will be a Special Meeting of the Congregation to act upon a call to the Pastorate. The Governing Board must approve financial aspects prior to the call.

Sec 3. Termination of Pastorate. (a) Resignation. When a Pastor resigns, the Congregation will act upon such resignation at an Annual or Special Meeting. (b) Dismissal. A Pastor may only be dismissed by a majority vote at a Special Meeting of the Congregation. Prior to calling such a meeting, the Governing Board must seek counsel from appropriate agencies of the United Church of Christ.

Sec 4. When the Church establishes a new Associate or Assistant Pastor position, or a vacancy occurs in an established position, the Governing Board and Pastor will jointly appoint a search committee to consider applicants and recommend a candidate. Upon nomination by the Pastor and endorsement by the Governing Board, the candidate may be called by the Congregation.

Sec 5. In the event of a temporary vacancy in the role of Pastor, the Governing Board may arrange for interim ministry, pulpit supply, or pastoral ministry as needed.

C. The Governing Board

Sec 1. The Governing Board has responsibility for facilitating congregational discernment about mission and vision, establishing strategic plans and goals, and working in partnership with the Pastor to ensure that Church resources are properly and effectively used for the fulfillment of its mission.

Sec 2. Members of the Governing Board are the Moderator as chairperson, Moderator-elect, Past Moderator, Treasurer, Clerk, and two Members at Large. The Pastor serves as a nonvoting, ex-officio member.

Sec 3. The Governing Board adopts policies to delegate authority, establish guidance and limitations, and provide for oversight of the work of the Church.

Sec 4. The Governing Board must annually present an operating budget for approval by the Congregation. Any deviation of more than 10% above the overall budgeted spending level for the year must be submitted to the Congregation for approval.

Sec 5. The Governing Board must meet at least nine times a year. Meetings may be called by the Moderator, the Pastor, or any three Governing Board members.

Sec 6. The Governing Board may appoint committees or task forces to advise and assist it in goal-setting, policy-making, and oversight, but not to manage or supervise Church staff or ministry teams.

Sec 7. The Governing Board may not buy, sell, mortgage, or transfer real property without prior approval by a two-thirds vote of the Congregation.

Sec 8. The fiscal year of the Church is the calendar year.

Sec 9. The Governing Board may remove an Officer or Governing Board member for misconduct by a vote of at least four Governing Board members after giving an opportunity for a fair hearing.

D. Officers

Sec 2. The Moderator presides at meetings of the Congregation and Governing Board and serves as a delegate to the Iowa Conference of the United Church of Christ.

Sec 3. The Moderator-elect serves as Moderator when the Moderator is unable to do so, and performs such other duties as the Moderator or Governing Board may assign.

Sec 4. The Past Moderator helps to assure historic continuity and support to the Moderator and Moderator-elect, and performs such other duties as the Moderator or Governing Board may assign.

Sec 5. The Clerk gives notice of all business meetings of the Congregation, keeps an official record of all business conducted at meetings of the Congregation and Governing Board, records the names of all Church members with the times of admission and removal, the names of the baptized of the Church with dates of baptism, presents to the Annual Meeting a full report including a statistical record of the past year, and performs such other duties as the Moderator or Governing Board may assign.

Sec 6. The Treasurer supports fulfillment of the Governing Board's financial oversight responsibilities by working with the staff to ensure that appropriate financial reports are made available to Governing Board members on a timely basis, and performs such other duties as the Moderator or Governing Board may assign. The Treasurer is responsible for directing the annual financial audit or review, and therefore plays no direct role in financial management.

Sec 7. The Governing Board may require officers, staff, and others who act in behalf of the Church to give such bond as it deems necessary for the faithful discharge of their duties.

Article VI – Endowment Fund

In order to provide members and friends of the Church with opportunities to extend indefinitely their lifetime stewardship; and in order to offer annual reminders to the Church family that they may support Christian ministries through planned giving; and in order to enlarge the ability of the Church to underwrite the extension of its stated goals, objectives, and purposes, the Church has established the Endowment Fund of United Church of Christ – Congregational, Grinnell, Iowa.

Sec 1. Purpose. The Endowment Fund consists of all funds held by the Church to produce long-term investment income, including all gifts restricted by the donor to the use of income only and funds designated as endowment by the Governing Board.

Sec 2. Gift acceptance. When the Church receives a major gift that may be appropriate for the Endowment, the Pastor will bring it to the attention of the Governing Board, which will decide whether to place it into the Endowment. Both donor-restricted and unrestricted gifts may be accepted into the Endowment Fund.

Sec 3. The Endowment is managed by an Endowment Fund Committee of five members of the Congregation, elected by the Congregation to two-year terms. In addition, the Pastor and Moderator serve as non-voting, ex-officio members. At its first meeting after each Annual Meeting, the Endowment Fund Committee elects a chair from among its members. The Endowment Fund Committee must meet at least quarterly.

Sec 4. The Endowment Fund Committee works under the oversight and direction of the Governing Board, and must present a complete report of the Fund's status and activity to the Congregation at each Annual Meeting.

Sec 5. It is the sense of the Congregation, but not a limitation, that the principal amount of the Fund should be allowed to grow so it will not be diminished by inflation or consumption.

Sec 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, or of instruments of transfer adding to the Fund, a three-quarters vote of, in order, the Endowment Fund Committee, the Governing Board, and the Congregation are required in order to modify any restriction or condition placed by a donor on the distribution of Funds; said vote of the above entities must find that such restriction or condition has become unnecessary, results in uses contrary to the expressed intent of the transferor, is incapable of fulfillment, is inconsistent with good stewardship, or is contrary to the mission of the Church.

Sec 7. Principal from the Fund may not be distributed unless extraordinary circumstances exist as determined by a two-thirds vote of, in order, the Endowment Fund Committee, the Governing Board, and the Congregation.

Article VII – Preschool
